This is a time when we are hungry to know more. Our stomachs are full and we wonder if our souls are empty. We hope for truth, we long for wisdom. When we can understand the most basic processes by which homo sapiens adapts something in us relaxes and we begin to stretch our imagination as well as our spirit.

Jennifer James PhD

Thinking in the Future Tense

Leadership Skills for a New Age. People who hope to seize the competitive advantage tomorrow must learn to “think in the future tense”: to identify the changes taking place around them, to interpret their meaning, and to benefit accordingly. Survival skills now require perspective (the ability to identify important changes), energy (the ability to do more with less), and a “menagerie” mind (the ability to create new patterns). This book makes it possible to understand and apply the skills that will be crucial to success in the twenty-first century.

Paperback $13.00 each.

Twenty Steps to Wisdom

This is a time when we are hungry to know more. Our stomachs are full and we wonder if our souls are empty. We yearn for the return of wisdom. There is a known path that is shared by all the wisdom traditions. Here, in this beautiful little book, are the twenty steps, from awakening to transformation, followed by virtually every religious and philosophical tradition that has guided us for 3000 years.

Hardcover, $14.95

Women and the Blues - Jennifer James presents a down-to-earth approach to understanding the good and the bad in life, the problems that give women and men the blues. Detailing dozens of “hurts and lows,” Jennifer breaks down analysis and advice by symptom, examines the specific problem and provides short and long-term solutions.
